Discover New Packaging & Processing Solutions

If you're on the East Coast, PACK EXPO East is the most convenient opportunity for you to explore the latest advances in packaging and processing and connect with suppliers you don't normally get a chance to see. In fact, it's a chance for your whole team to attend without spending a lot of time or money on travel.

You won't find a more efficient way to evaluate, compare and decide on the right solution for your next project.
